

20 Tips for Muslims in the current situation

1. Practice Islam as much as you can.
2. Respect your parents, elders, and children.
3. Respect your neighbors and people of other faiths – assist them when they need help.
4. Find a teacher or an organization that directs you to the right path and right laws.
5. Keep away from debates and arguments.
6. Understand Islam's organic nature.
7. Maintain your identity to be a successful Muslim who is kind and generous to everybody.
8. Force yourself to go to the Masjid often.
9. Find good Muslim friends and avoid severing ties with good people.
10. Avoid loneliness – stay in company of groups that follow laws, ethics, and Quran and Sunnah.
11. Stay away from any kind of extremism – keep watch over children and youth activities.
12. Do not despair – your life and family needs dedicated and focused actions to succeed.
13. Do not hurt innocent people of any faith or use force, coercion, or anger against anyone.
14. Do not argue with anyone or harm anyone's feelings in any way.
15. Participate in protests against injustice and oppression by joining groups that work legally.
16. Fulfill all bilateral/international accords (e.g. UN Charter) for peace and stability of humanity.
17. Treat all members of society with equality, fairness, and justice.
18. Do not abuse or degrade the god/gods of non-Muslims.
19. Your character of generosity should be a source of inspiration to the people around you.
20. Educate yourself with current regulations and be a law abiding Muslim focused on success.